Sabic Olefins Plant
Bulging was noticed in the body of debutanizer column RT-01 total condenser
Poly butadiene formed in the shell of the condenser
Risk assessment and consequence modeling was conducted to ensure effective risk mitigation is in place for all failure modes identified
Production was not interrupted until the exchanger was replaced