About Hazards

Hazards is widely recognised as one of the world's leading process safety conferences. First staged in 1960, it is an industry-focused event which shares good practice, current thinking and lessons learned in process safety.

Following a very successful event in 2023 which saw a record attendance for the annual conference of over 260 paying attendees, Hazards 34 will be an ideal opportunity for sponsors and exhibitors to re-connect with existing clients and build new networks with other process safety and loss prevention professionals.

Check out www.icheme.org/hazards34 for the latest information about the event.

Key features

- Trade exhibition of process safety products and services
- Opportunities to host workshops and sponsored sessions
- Sponsorship and exhibition packages to suit every budget
- Social and networking opportunities throughout the event
- Process safety presentations and posters from industry practitioners, regulators and researchers
- Invited plenary speakers from industry.

DID YOU KNOW....

Hazards is primarily an industry event. Last year, 46% of attendees came from operating companies.

Why sponsor or exhibit at Hazards?

Sponsoring or exhibiting at Hazards 34 can help you generate new business leads, raise brand awareness, demonstrate your commitment to process safety good practice and/or provide a cost-effective, time-effective way to catch-up with current process safety clients and contacts.

Whatever your aim, we can help.

Here's what the delegate profile looked like at our last face-to-face Hazards conference in 2023.

“ This is where it's at for process safety. If you're in to process safety, this is the place to be. ”

Richard Freeman, Engineers

Why come to Hazards 34?

Prime location

The Hazards 34 exhibition hall will be at the heart of the conference. We'll be serving all our food and drink in the exhibition area, ensuring regular footfall. Subject to capacity, we'll also be housing our poster presentations in the same space.

Networking opportunities

Our Hazards 34 welcome drinks reception takes place in the exhibition hall and we offer our exhibitors the chance to serve the drinks from their stands. Exhibitors and sponsors also receive invitations to the conference social event the following night, helping you continue networking with delegates in a less formal setting.

The Manchester factor

Hazards 34 will be held at the Emirates Old Trafford, Lancashire Cricket Club, a modern venue with world-leading facilities in one of the UK's top event destinations. Close to the centre of Manchester, it's ideally placed for a wide range of public transport options.

Manchester has been named as one of 25 global destinations to be included in the Where to Go 2024 list by prestigious US travel publication AFAR, has been named in the New York Times' 52 Places to Go list for 2024 and is the only UK city in National Geographic's influential 'Best of the World' list which annually sets out 25 of the must-see places to visit around the globe.

DID YOU KNOW....

Every year 1/3 of the delegates at Hazards are new to the event, helping our regular exhibitors and sponsors generate new leads and catch up with established contacts.
